++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain clearing east in morning then brighter with showers.

Today:
A cloudy and breezy start to Saturday with outbreaks of heavy rain but these will clear east during the morning. Becoming brighter from the west with sunny spells and a few showers. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Any showers dying out to leave a mostly dry and chilly night with clear spells, perhaps the odd mist patch developing. Rain and strengthening winds across the far south later. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Sunday:
Cloud and heavy rain will spread north across all parts in the morning with strong southeasterly winds. Rain and winds will ease followed by scattered heavy showers. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Rather windy on Monday with showers or longer spells of rain. Further showers on Tuesday then sunny spells and lighter showers on Wednesday. Feeling rather cold.
